Country of Origin Statement

January 01, 2025

This document confirms and/or certifies the country of origin of the products included below meet the definition as stated in 19 CFR 134.

A statement of the country of origin on the labeling of imported foods is not required by the Federal Food, Drug, & Cosmetic Act. This is a requirement of the U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) as authorized by the Tariff Act of 1930 and CPB regulations (19 USC 1304(a) and 19 CFR Part 134).

Country of Origin means the country of manufacture, production, or growth of any article of foreign origin entering the United States. Further work or material added to an article in another country must effect a substantial transformation in order to render such other country the “country of origin”.

King Arthur Baking Company is very committed to using only the finest ingredients; Food Quality and Food Safety are the foundation of our success.

We follow strict Good Manufacturing Practices and Safe Quality Food guidelines to meet our very strict standards. Our Approved Supplier Program qualifies companies that share the same level of Food Safety and Quality as King Arthur Baking Company.

Our facility is registered in accordance with The Public Health Security and Bioterrorism Preparedness and Response Act Of 2002, and FDA Food Safety Modernization Act of 2011 section 102.
